

Are you satisfied with your florist?

Flowers are an investment. Be sure you're getting the best value possible.

Imagine the difference.

Some companies simply deliver flowers. Visions from the Heart is different. We create floral arrangements that bring a breath of freshness into lobbies, reception areas and virtually any corporate setting that recognizes the benefits of an attractive first impression. Why be satisfied with flowers? We can transform a simple bouquet into living art.

Making a statement? Say it with heart.

Flowers reflect your intent, sentiment and gratitude. If you're going to make a statement with flowers, be magnificent. Timeless floral designs express your sincerest wishes. Not sure about the right style? For more than a decade, Hamilton companies have trusted Visions from the Heart for inspired choices.

- Alluring floral accents that set the tone for any corporate function.
- Memorable awards to recognize employee achievement.
- Heart-felt condolences in case of illness or loss.
- Gifts of appreciation that build rapport with clients and guests.

We're passionate about flowers. And it shows.

Visions from the Heart is Hamilton's premiere florist, renowned for graceful arrangements with a hint of sophistication. Our mark of distinction? Maybe it's the freshness of our flowers, carefully selected from the finest products available. Or, perhaps it's the quality of presentation that speaks to a time when workplace élan meant something.

A full-service florist. At your service.

Discover the difference a handcrafted floral arrangement can make in your business environment. You'll be glad you found Visions from the Heart.

Wedding plans?

Floral designs are a time honored wedding tradition. Choosing a designer who understands balance, colour and texture is an important decision during the hectic days of wedding planning.

So is trust. Visions from the Heart has helped hundreds of couples on their special day with bouquets and accessories that accent the room and bring romance to full bloom.
